Card holder Obligations and Responsibilities

The following must be agreed to prior to an ASIC being issued.

- The Card is issued subject to the Aviation Transport Security Regulations 2005, The AusCheck Regulations 2017, the Privacy Act 1988 and to the Hobart International Airport Pty Ltd ASIC Program, approved under the Regulations.
- You must never loan or share your card with another person or use some else's card to gain access to a secure area.
- You must notify Hobart Airport Administration within seven (7) days if your card is lost, stolen or destroyed.
- You must return your red or grey ASIC to Hobart Airport Administration no later than one (1) month after:
 - The card expires;
 - The card is cancelled;
 - The card has been damaged, altered or defaced; or
 - You no longer have an operational need to enter a secure area.
- If you are responsible for a visitor at Hobart Airport you must confirm their reason for visiting and ensure they are issued a VIC. The VIC holder must be supervised by a valid ASIC holder at all times. (Note white ASIC holders cannot supervise visitors at any airport)
- You must properly display your valid red or grey ASIC while in a Security Restricted Area of Hobart Airport. Properly display means:
 - Attached to your outer clothing;
 - Above waist height;
 - At the front or side of your body; and
 - With the whole front of the card clearly visible.

Note: White ASICs are not required to be displayed.
- You must notify Hobart Airport administration in person with original identification documents with in 30 day of changing your name.
- Your change of name document must be government issued (eg Marriage or change of name certificate).
- You must notify Hobart Airport Administration or AusCheck in writing of any new aviation-security-relevant offences with seven (7) days.

Fines may apply if an ASIC holder fails to meet their card holder obligations.

I confirm that I have completed the online Security Awareness Presentation (Before working at HBA - Hobart Airport) and my certificate of completion is attached.

I accept and will abide by the obligations and responsibilities above.
